Norfolk Asphalt begins public cleanup process

Scott MacKeen
Staff Reporter

Norfolk Asphalt is taking the first steps toward alleviating the release of hazardous materials at its Pleasant Street plant.

During a public hearing last Thursday night, a company representative presented a draft version of its Public Involvement Plan (PIP), which deals with part of a five-phase public process from removing certain chemicals, including cyanide, discovered at the site last year.

Tim Higgins, of Edgewood Development, a Plainville company owned by Norfolk Asphalt president Gerry Lorusso, presented the PIP to a group of residents at the meeting. Edgewood has been handling the filing requirements with the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).

The PIP process came about after a group of Norwood residents earlier this year filed a petition with the DEP requesting that the asphalt plant be designated a PIP site.

The DEP itself has classified Norfolk Asphalt as a Tier II disposal site. This triggers automatic public reporting requirements from the company. Higgins said it involves following the procedural steps with the Massachusetts Contingency Plan (MCP) for properties found to have contamination.

Todd Gundlach, who filed the petition with 13 other residents, said the PIP was requested to create transparency and "keep the owner of the property's feet to the fire" with respect to the reporting process. Without it, he felt that Norfolk Asphalt could have asserted "quite quickly" to the DEP that they had done all the public-safety remediation they could possibly do.

"They could've jumped to that conclusion very easily," said Gundlach. "This is basically how they're going to keep the public involved on any remediation that may be done. It was their legal requirement to make this presentation to the public [on Thursday night]."

One of the requirements was that a copy of the draft PIP be made available at the Morrill Memorial Library reference

Selectmen schedule Town Meeting for rink land transfer

Scott MacKeen
Staff Reporter

A land-transfer proposal attached to the Coakley Middle School hockey rink project appears to be back on the table much sooner than originally planned.

At their meeting Tuesday night, the Board of Selectmen voted to hold another Town Meeting later this month to seek approval for the transfer of school-owned land at the Coakley to the town for purposes of building the rink there.

The Special Town Meeting was set for Thursday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. at the high school, and will feature just the single warrant article dealing with transfer of land at the tennis courts where the rink is slated to be built.

According to the plan, the tennis courts will be rebuilt elsewhere on the property, although exactly where has yet to be nailed down.

Two weeks ago, the Selectmen removed language dealing with the land transfer in an article for the May 13 Town Meeting, saying they felt more time was needed to finalize that aspect of the project. They said it would likely be brought back to Town Meeting in the fall.

However, that process now seems to have been accelerated. Selectmen Chairman Bill Plasko said the issue came up earlier in the day Tuesday at a so-called "motions meeting" in preparation for the upcoming Town Meeting, during which Superintendent James Hayden said the School Committee would be hearing about the land transfer at their meeting Wednesday night. The meeting took place after the Norwood Record's press deadline.

The School Committee, which earlier voted to support the Selectmen in seeking the release of $5.6 million in state funds for the rink, must further vote to give the tennis-court land over to the Recreation Department as part of the project.

'Everybody loved Joe'

The Selectmen followed with many others in town in mourning the loss of a giant public figure in Norwood.

Joe Curran, who served on the Board of Selectmen for over 20 years during three separate stints spanning four different decades, passed away on Sunday at the age of 83.

"Joe Curran was the town of Norwood. He represented what it really means to be a good Norwood citizen," said Selectman Paul Bishop. "He was constantly concerned about the town. He will not be forgotten any time soon."

Curran was the chairman when Plasko was first elected to the board in 1978. That was also the year Town Manager John Carroll joined the ranks at Town Hall. Carroll showed

Letters to the Editor

THEY SHOULD STICK TO WHAT THEY KNOW

To the Editor:

The Norwood Record quotes Bill Kinsman, PBCC, saying $5.69M may not be enough to build a hockey rink. Source: Tim Bonfatti of Compass Management (CM) who consulted on high school. Well done there.

Go to the CM website. They note that some of their staff have worked on hockey rinks either with CM or at prior jobs. Look through projects. Of the numerous projects highlighted, their are only two that "include" a rink." The Nicholas Athletic Center at Buckingham, Browne, and Nichols' Nicholas Athletic Center in Cambridge, which (Quoting from BBN website). "it is a state-of-the-art complex that features the John Etter gymnasium, an ice rink, and indoor tennis courts, an indoor rowing tank, seating for 450 spectators, an 11,000 square foot fitness center, and the beautiful Seastreet Lounge. The complex also includes a 3,700 square foot sports medicine area, administrative offices, and locker rooms. Yearly tuition at BB&N is $39,000. Endowment unknown.

The second rink on the site is Boston College's Conte Forum which seats over 7,500 and is one of the premier facilities in the country. I need say no more here.

The RinC group has engaged John Burley of Pennsylvania, Dave McCarthy of Somerville, and Jim Kane of Lewiston, Me. All specialize in building single sheet ice rinks with modest seating all over the U.S. and Canada. All have said that for our purposes, that 5.69m is more than sufficient. Rinks for the little people.

Apple (those who do it for a living) versus the orange (those who have dabbled in a couple of mega-projects that included a sheet of ice as an adjunct) equals Town Meeting saying: Next question, please.

STUDENT EXTOLS RINK VIRTUES

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter as a hockey player, a fifth grade student and a boy who is of the fifth generation to grow up here in Norwood, on why we need this hockey rink to go in. My mom and dad went to the meeting about it, too.

It is not just about the hockey players in this town, it is about the town and helping the people in it! Let me tell you why? When we travel to go to all these rinks in Brockton, Randolph, Milton, Plymouth, Pembroke, Canton and many more, our families spend a lot of money on gas and food. When we go to these places we have to stop before or after the game and get something to eat and drink. Our parents are spending a lot of money not only on the gas to get us there but the food and drink we need, too. My parents are always talking about how Norwood needs more money for schools and programs. If we put this rink in, it is going to bring in a lot of money for some of our restaurants, coffee shops and other businesses. Hockey does not just bring players and their parents; it brings in their relatives who want to see you play. If this rink is built there are so many teams looking for ice time that they will just want to come to Norwood and use our ice. That is more money for the rink.

Next, it would be something for this town to do together. The rink is not only going to help the Norwood hockey programs but all of the people in Norwood. My Nanny and her friends can go up to skate, especially in the winter when they cannot walk outside or just want something to do for a change. There will be open skate times where anyone in Norwood could bring their family, friends and neighbors to come up for a skate and get some exercise, how fun! There are lots of learn to skate programs it could offer, instead of the money going to another rink, people could come to our rink. The rink could offer other programs such as figure skating, too! It will not just be a HOCKEY RINK but an ice rink for all to use in Norwood.

Norwood needs to look at what the state is willing to give us for money to support this rink. State Representative John Rogers has been very helpful in getting this funding for Norwood. If we do not take this opportunity the money will go to someone else and for something else, but NOT to Norwood! It is important to know that my parents and nanny's taxes are NOT going to increase to get this rink in. If we in Norwood do not take this money the state is offering us, it will go somewhere else, to someone else. That is just sad to me!

So I ask all that live in Norwood to think long and hard about what we want for our town and its people. This rink would bring our community together at no cost to the taxpayer. Isn't that what we need?

Dominic M. Fanizzi Norwood

IT'S EMBARRASSING THAT THERE IS NO RINK

To the Editor:

I wanted to show my support for the proposed ice rink at the Coakley Middle School. It is embarrassing that neighboring towns of Dedham, Walpole and Canton can approve and build ice rinks while a proud hockey town like Norwood cannot. Our kids have their home rink in Brockton and Bridgewater.

The funds are there. The site reviews, feasibility and traffic studies have all been completed. From what I have seen all conclusions have been favorable. It is free money folks. Let's not squander this opportunity. We may never get another one. We overcame all the naysayers for that beautiful high school. It is nothing short of spectacular. Let's do the same for the rink as well. Let's get this done!

*Craig Cropper

URGE VOTERS TO SUPPORT RINK

To the Editor:

We want to start by saying a sincere thank you to Bill Naumann and the RINC committee who have worked tirelessly to get a skating rink in Norwood. The amount of time, dedication, and research that has been completed is truly amazing. It is much appreciated.

The traffic studies and feasibility studies all support a new rink. They clearly state that a current parking and traffic problem that now exists in Norwood will actually be improved...without the town having to pay for it! We are being offered a new facility at no financial detriment to the taxpayers of Norwood. In fact this new rink will greatly improve revenue for the local restaurants, gas stations, and a multitude of other businesses striving to make it in a not so prosperous economy. It will provide more jobs for those who need one. The fact that our local hockey teams and their families will save an incredible amount of time and money is also a tremendous benefit of the new rink. More Norwood children will likely participate in hockey with the convenience of a rink in town. There are a multitude of benefits for children who participate in sports. It develops their confidence, social relationships, and physical health. They meet friends and learn to be part of a team. They have an option to spend their time working hard and listening to directions from skilled coaches, instead of hanging around down town and getting into trouble. It makes us

TM has much to decide

Well, it's that time again when this newspaper attempts to side with the "winners" at Town Meeting. One letter writer insists that we hold grudges when the endorsements we make are not the direction voters take, which implies we have "skin" in the game. Rest assured, whether or not voters end up agreeing or disagreeing with our assessments, we sleep very well at night because our opinions are proffered without our own taxes, children or backyards personally at stake. We base them on what we believe to be the most advantageous and moral choices in front of Norwood voters, and at times what may be the most advantageous is not the most moral. We only attempt to point this out. The rest is out of our hands.

Regarding the ice skating rink's proposed location in South Norwood, we just think residents of The Flats have been dumped on enough. Every letter published in this newspaper in support of the new rink failed two tests. The first is that South Norwood residents wrote none of them, and the second is that no writer mentioned that the whole look and feel of that section of Washington Street would be forever tarnished by more cement and asphalt. It would be nice to have a skating rink in Norwood, just not important enough to do so at the expense of those having to live within its shadow. The majority is not always right, if it was there would be no need for the judicial branch of our government and our schools would still be segregated. This rink shouldn't happen at the Coakley, it just isn't fair to your neighbors.

The article to reinstate a Strong Chief back on Nahatan Street should be an easy choice. If Norwood Fire Chief Anthony Greeley stands up and lists off legitimate reasons why he feels encumbered by reporting directly to the town's General Manager as opposed to Selectmen, TMers should seriously consider backing his opinion. However, should the Chief, for whatever reason, decide to keep quiet, then it is a strong signal that he either doesn't feel it is the right way to go or that he hasn't had enough time in his position to properly weigh in on the issue, proof that this article is only on the warrant because a few firemen and their families want to keep their business away from the public's prying eyes. Who, by the way, pay their salaries.

A one-year moratorium on medical marijuana facilities in Norwood is a good idea. The town needs time to decide the best way to limit locations for them. Another petition seeks to establish an elected electric light board to replace Selectmen as overseers of the department, and we think this may have merit, though we take no position until an airing of the reasons take place. If a part time Board of Selectmen doesn't have the time to oversee the fire department, than it is reasonable to think the same could be said for the electric and cable department, one of the largest revenue generators in town. That being written, the light department does seem to function well as currently constructed, so one could argue why fix something if it aint broke.

Finally, it is with great sadness we acknowledge the passing of former Selectman and School Committee member Joe Curran. A true gentleman in every sense of the word, when this newspaper started publishing here over twenty years ago, Mr. Curran was one of the first to step up and welcome us. No one cared more about this town than Joe Curran, and few will be remembered as fondly...

Town Meeting gets underway Monday night

Scott MacKeen
Staff Reporter

Norwood Town Meeting members will have much to consider when Town Moderator David Hern drops his gavel to convene the Annual Town Meeting on Monday night.

On a number of different articles, members will be asked to decide on capital expenditures, a newly elected municipal light board, a temporary ban on medical-marijuana facilities in town and creation of a new "flex space" zoning district, among other things.

The two issues expected to generate the most debate involve the strong chief law for the Fire Department and the hockey rink at the Coakley Middle School.

Special Town Meeting last November voted by standing count, 88 to 79, to rescind the so-called strong chief law, which had been in place in Norwood for 86 years. The decision resulted in the operation of the Fire Department being placed under the town manager rather than the Selectmen. The union had campaigned to maintain the strong chief law, which they said served the town well over the years.

Article 14 on the Annual Town Meeting warrant, which is a citizens' petition, seeks to reinstate the strong chief law. The petition included 20 signatures, several of which are from relatives of current firefighters.

Perhaps the most widely debated issue going into the Town Meeting has been the hockey rink, which is funded through $5.6 million in funds secured in the state budget last summer. Articles 14 and 15 of the Special Town Meeting warrant both deal with the rink, the first seeking authorization for the town to accept the state funds to design and construct the rink. Article 15, a citizens' petition from South Norwood resident Patty Bailey with 141 signatures, asks Town Meeting to reject the Coakley site for the rink. There is expected to be presentations in support of each article.

Article 5 of Special Town Meeting is to establish a one-year moratorium on all marijuana treatment centers in Norwood. While state voters legalized medical marijuana last year, town officials are supporting the moratorium as way of allowing more time to develop regulations to limit the location of dispensaries in town. Several other towns have already approved similar moratoriums.

Another petition, Article 13 on the Annual Town Meeting, features 14 signatures and asks the town to enact a state law providing for an election of a five-member municipal light board, which would presumably take the place of the Selectmen as light commissioners. The Selectmen have said they will challenge the legal standing of the petition based on advice from town counsel.

Article 4 of Special Town Meeting asks the Town Meeting to establish a new flex space zoning for Vanderbilt commercial district off Route 1, which would allow mixed-use buildings to operate in the area. The proposal is part of an overall plan to create a proposed Neponset River Business Park by enhancing the area's commercial and recreational potential.

Article 7, proposed by Police Chief Bill Brooks, would create a requirement for those seeking a hawk/peddler license, operator of a public conveyance or ice cream truck venhappy to think that there will be one more place for our children to spend time in a safe, structured environment. The community will be able to use the rink for watching games, birthday parties, and free skating time. We are so fortunate to receive this once in a lifetime gift of over five million dollars!

I hope when it's time to make the decision about a new rink all of the benefits will be considered. Thousands of people in Norwood want this rink very much. With any change, there are always naysayers.... always. There always have been and there always will be. All sides have been listened to and considered. I urge the Selectmen and Town Meeting members to not get caught up in the small amount of people who are negative. Good decisions are made based on the betterment of the community as a whole. The best decision here is to vote yes for a new skating rink in Norwood!

HI GUYS, GOD BLESS AMERICA

Devoid of heart and soul, footsteps of evil stalked the sidewalks of the Boston Marathon, leaving in their path horrific death, injury, and destruction. The chaos that ensued was met with first responders taking the necessary actions to administer to those in need. Many people that were there just to enjoy the race also stepped in to help in any way they could. It didn't matter one's race, religion, political preference, or standing in the community. It was the true spirit of America reflecting its love, respect and allegiance for our great country.

TWO VERY LONG HOURS

Our Town's Selectman, Allan Howard, and his family were at the Marathon. Allan had run the race for many years prior. Allan and Renie's son, Steve, has also run and was running again this year. Steve has raised more than $60K for Dana-Farber.

In the stands at the finish line were Steve's wife and two daughters, five and six-years-old. Allan was parking his car a block away on Huntington Avenue. when the blasts sounded. Phone service was cut immediately so that no one could contact their family members at the finish line to speak with them. After two anxious hours Allan was in contact with his family finding that they were okay. Allan's birthday that week was

ABUNDANT TABLE

A few years ago, while in the second grade at the Balch School, two friends, Audrey Scafati and Isabella Inzodda, made a decision that most young kids don't. Together on Christmas Eve at Audrey's house, Bella asked Audrey if they should do a fundraiser, through their Girl Scout Troop for the Abundant Table. They did just that and raised money to donate by baking cookies.

Today, Audrey, 10-years-old, and Bella, 11-years-old, now in the 5th grade at the Balch have done it again. They got together and decided on a 'Spare Change' fundraiser for the AT. They approached their Principal, Ms. Jean Selines with the proposal. Ms. Selines checked with Super-desk. It is also available on the DEP website. The final PIP document is expected to be finalized over the summer and the entire cleanup process will take several years.

To evaluate the release of hazardous materials, Norfolk Asphalt was required to complete a Phase 1 Site Investigation, which was submitted to the DEP back in January.

For their part, the company has stated that the hazardous materials are "inherited" from previous uses of the site going back to the mid-1800s. Over the years, the property has operated as a coal gasification plant and an ink factory, among other things. The study identified contaminants in two specific areas on the site where those facilities operated in the past.

"Norfolk Asphalt has nothing to do with the contaminates. But the bottom line is they have been identified and have to be dealt with. It poses no risk to anyone today. Our consultant have been very clear on that," said Higgins. Higgins also contended that Norfolk Asphalt is following the state guidelines and not rushing anything through.

"There's nothing to be hidden from anyone. It's a public process even without the Public Involvement Plan. Given the large cost involved in doing this work, I don't find the benefit of rushing anything through. There's way too much work to be done," he said.

Higgins said Phase 2 of the process is to "geographically define" the contamination on the site, which must be filed with the DEP by January of 2015.

"All of this is going to take place over many years. It's very expensive work," he said.

Meanwhile, Norfolk Asphalt has dealt with some neighborhood complaints over a strong asphalt odor emanating from the site. Gundlach said the odor-related issues are separate from the contamination, however, they did come up at last week's hearing.

"Those grievances are always going to be aired," said Gundlach. "Most of the residents in the area are obviously affected more by the odor rather than what is under the ground. Unfortunately, the DEP doesn't really regulate odor. That's really left to the local health department and the Board of Health."

While his company is not directly involved in the odor issue, Higgins said Norfolk Asphalt's health and safety officer has been engaged with the Health Department.

Sigalle Reiss, the town's health director, said she has only received four complaints of odor from the site this year and all came from the same individual. Those reports have not been verified, she said.

"The two things we look for are intensity and duration, and they haven't reach that level that we've been able to document them," said Reiss.

Reverend pledges to preach from the steeple!

Scott MacKeen
Staff Reporter

The steeple at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Norwood stands approximately 90 feet tall and was constructed in 1948.

The Rev. Edward Saling, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran, won't be standing quite that high up if and when he preaches from the steeple at some point in the coming weeks.

As part of an effort to raise funds for repairs to the deteriorating structure, Saling has offered to preach Sunday service from the steeple. That will occur if the church can raise $12,000 by the end of the month.

"It's probably about 30 or 40 feet up where I'll be standing. There's a way up there from inside the building. I've been up there many times," said Saling in describing his idea to preach from the tower as an incentive for the congregation to donate funds for the repairs. "I'm looking forward to having some fun with this."

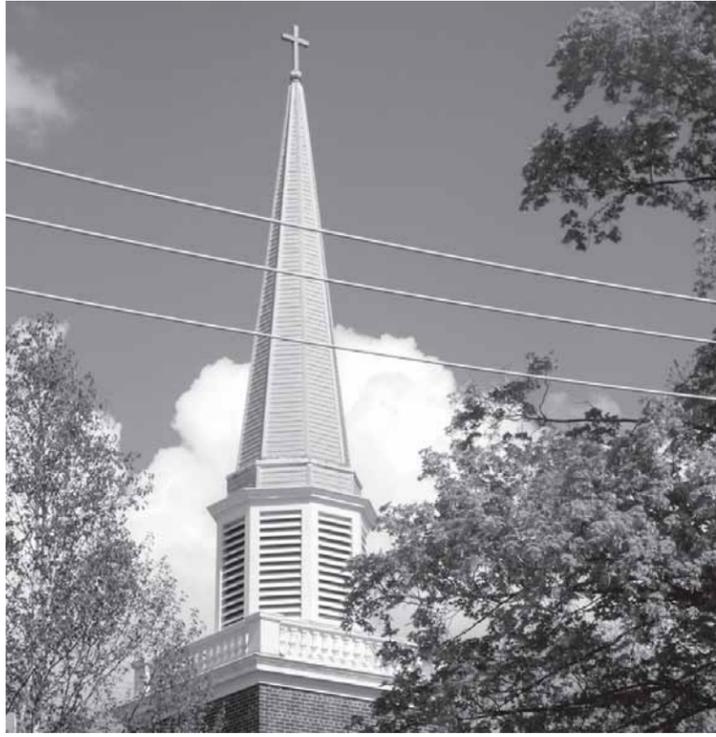

The church itself was built in 1939 and is affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Congregation member Ann Frerichs, who is chairing a fundraising committee, said the steeple has long been in need of restoration.

"It needs to be fully fixed. It's leaking terribly," said Frerichs. "It's leaking into the church. They have done some things to temporarily stop the water flow into the church. But there's a lot of rotting wood up there. We need to bring it up to today's standards."

Saling said the steeple will be re-clad in copper and painted white, with all of the leaks being shored up.

"I've been here for 18 years. The past 12 years or so we've had continual leaking. [The steeple] probably has not been cared for for 30 or 40 years," he said. "We've solved

The Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Norwood is seeking funding to repair its steeple, which is over 60 years old and has leaking problems. The church's pastor, Edward Saling, has offered to preach from atop the chapel if the congregation can raise $12,000 by the end of the month.

the problem enough to keep the water out, but that was just a temporary solution."

Frerichs said the total cost of repairs is approximately $80,000, of which $55,000 has already been raised or covered from existing sources.

"With this last $25,000, we need some help. We are looking at a number of different project," she said, adding that the final fundraising effort began about a month ago.

Church members have been "incredibly supportive" in making donations and volunteering at plant and bake sales, said Frerichs, but those efforts can only go so far. The church is looking for significant pledges and donations.

"We're not going to get there with just bake sales. I will be doing bake sales the rest of my life and have to live to be 100," she said.

"We could really use a major donation. We have known that we needed to repair this steeple now for a couple of years."

Saling said the church has already retained the services of Salem-based American Steeple & Tower Co., and the project is expected to begin in June and wrap up in the fall.

"The congregation is one that is truly participative. They just want to make a difference," said Frerichs, a Westwood resident who joined the church 11 years ago. "It's a very close-knit church. This [renovation project] is a big thing, but even on smaller things people pitch in if there is a need."

Emmanuel Lutheran Church is located 24 Berwick St., between Chapel and Washington streets in Norwood.

Greyhound adopting event scheduled for June 1

Scott MacKeen
Staff Reporter

Greyhound Friends, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to finding homes for greyhound racing dogs, is holding an upcoming event in Norwood.

Doris Dickson, owner of Sir Pugsley and Lady Jules Pet Supplies on Endicott Street, adopted her dog Jules from Greyhound Friends around six months ago.

Dickson is now opening her store for the Greyhound Friends' Adopt a Dog event, which takes place on Saturday, June 1, from noon to 2 p.m. at 61 Endicott St., Building 24.

Greyhound Friends director, Louise Coleman, said her organization - which is based in Hopkinton - usually holds an event every weekend in different locations throughout the region to educate people on the status of greyhounds now that all of the tracks in New England have been closed. At least one adoptable greyhound will be brought to the Norwood store on June 1, she said.

"There are still greyhounds that need good homes, and they're really nice dogs," said Coleman. "We have the demand here. We adopt about 300 greyhounds a year."

Coleman's kennel brings up around six greyhounds a week from Florida, and also brings in dogs from high-kill shelters in the Midwest. They also take in coonhounds, beagles and other hound mixes.

"There's not as much spaying and neutering at these places as we have in New England. There is a 90-percent kill rate in many of these shelters," she said. "We try to get out as much public education as we can on what greyhounds are like."

At any given time, there are 20 greyhounds ready and waiting to be adopted at the Greyhound Friends kennel. There is an adoption fee of $250 with each adopted dog, which goes towards neutering, shots and a collar and leash.

The kennel is open seven days a week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Call (508) 435-5969 or visit www.greyhound.org for more information.

intendent James Hayden and the girls were then given the green light to proceed with their plans.

Audrey and Bella designed and distributed flyers to every class in school. They also walked and talked personally to their classmates during their school day and at recess. Their mission, through hard work and caring for others at their surprisingly young ages, proved very successful. They should be very proud of themselves as they have presented a check to the Abundant Table in the amount of $255.96.

It was a pleasure for me to meet Audrey and Bella. They are vivacious and outstanding to speak with. Their joyful attitudes will take them far in life, and Our Town wishes them the best, always!

TOWN MEETING

When TM convenes in May, two issues will be discussed. The location of the skating rink will be voted on. Many feel that the rink should not be erected at the Middle School, but another site in Our Town. The discussion of newly installed traffic signals, police directing traffic, lane changes for buses, newly created parking for myriad cars, etc., only increase the traffic nightmare that exists at that specific location and along the entire Wash. St. route. Many extra dollars might be needed for the project that is not included in the state funding.

Our NFD will be asking for a vote to re-instate the 'Strong Chief Law' for our Fire Department. For more than 80 years there was no problem until the issue arose surrounding the recently former Chief. Another very important point arises when in the future, Our Town is under the direction of a new Town Manager. When it comes to the vote, I hope that our TM members will be there for our NFD as our NFD are ALWAYS there for us.

VERY SPECIAL SCHOOL

On Sunday, April 28, Our Town's fabulous Balch School was filled to the brim with people that had come to honor her on the occasion of her 100th birthday. The large committee that worked for many weeks presented an outstanding program. In attendance were beloved retired and present day teachers. A special room was set up with photos and memorabilia from past students that made a name for themselves in Our Town that graduated from the Balch many, many, years ago.

John Howard was the oldest grad in attendance at the celebration at age 98. During the program, the Balch School Chorus entertained with a few songs ending with "God Bless America." They were great!

In my old memory bank, the Balch School was the greatest elementary I attended. When we moved, I had to attend the Winslow in a double grade. There was NO comparison to the Balch! One easily gets the feeling that the Balch still operates in a way that is inclusive, caring and nurturing through education and respect. In today's very different and difficult world, my Balch School is still MAGIC!! Thank you Ms. Selines and fabulous teachers for what you do for our kids today. You are all very special!

THANK YOU

When the bombings occurred at the Marathon, two of Our Town's Police Officers, Anthony Lopes and Will Fundora, reported to the scene as they are members of an elite SWAT Team. Our Town's Chris Riccardi is a Police Officer at Harvard and immediately reported to MIT where he encountered the terrorist at very close range. Thankfully all are safe.

dor to submit fingerprint identification to the Police Department for a criminal background check.

Town Meeting will also be asked to accept portions of Vanderbilt Avenue, Astor Avenue, Carnegie Row, Morgan Drive and River Ridge Drive. The roads are all located in the same business area off Route 1 in Norwood that is being eyed for the new zoning proposal. Accepting the layout of the roads by the town would also allow the DPW to seek Chapter 90 funds from the state to repave them.

The Special Town Meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 13, at 7:25 p.m. and the Annual Town Meeting for 7:30 p.m. at the Norwood High School, 245 Nichols St.

If needed, the Town Meeting will continue on Thursday, May 16 and Monday, May 20 at 7:30 p.m.

THE MASSACHUSETTS LIBRARY ASSOCIATION (MLA)

Presented the 21th biennial public relations awards to the winning applicants at the Association's Annual Conference at the Hyatt Regency in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Winners were chosen by a panel of independent judges from the public relations, press, and library fields. Evaluation criteria included graphic design, originality, and presentation. Entries were submitted for 20 categories, including brochures, community reading programs, social media, and Websites.

Nancy Ling, Outreach Librarian received First Prize in the category Coordinated Advocacy. Charlotte Canelli, Library Director accepted the certificate from the MLA Public Relations Committee at the PR Awards Ceremony.

The submission to the biennial PR contest was for the Norwood's First Steps program in collaboration with the Norwood Hospital. New parents of babies born at the Norwood Hospital are presented with a special bag filled with books, bookmarks, library information and a brochure about the importance of reading.

The Massachusetts Library Association advocates for libraries, librarians, and library staff, defends intellectual freedom, and provides a forum for leadership, communication, professional development, and networking to keep libraries vital. MLA has been working libraries for over 100 years, representing members from all library types in the Commonwealth. For more information see www.masslib.org.

public office or as a longtime board member at Norwood Bank, Curran was a fundamental part of Norwood.

"I taught him banking and he taught me how to treat people. Joe was my guardian angel. He was a great man. He was very influential in my life," said Norwood Bank President Chris Dixon. "If it wasn't for Joe Curran, I would never be the president of the bank. I've known of Joe since I was probably six or seven years old."

Curran, who served three separate stints on the Norwood Board of Selectmen spanning four decades, died on Sunday at the age of 83.

Curran served nearly 40 years on the board of directors at Norwood Bank. He served a total of 24 years as a Selectmen, first from 1966 to 1971 and two additional stretches from 1974 to 1980 and 1982 to 1993. He also served for three years on the School Committee.

"Joe Curran was like a brother. When I was on the Board of Selectmen, he was my mentor," said Norwood High School Principal George Usevich, who served as a selectman alongside Curran from 1975 to 1978. "He was our community representative to our school council, always a strong supporter of the kids. Joe Curran epitomized all that was good. He was kind, compassionate, strong of faith, devoted to family and loyal to friends."

Assistant Town Manager Bernie Cooper first met Curran when Cooper was a young man starting his career working at the Norwood Town Hall back in 1972.

"He was the greatest public servant I've ever known," said Cooper. "He was an amazing man. I don't know what else to say. He could make decisions, but he was always considering the human element. He always thought about the people. That's what made him such a great selectman."

Curran was an advertising executive at the Boston Herald for 38 years, retiring in 1992. A longtime supporter of Norwood sports, he was also a member of the Norwood High School Hall of Fame.

At Norwood Bank, everyone who knew Curran simply called him "Mr. Chairman," said Dixon.

"Everyone looked up to him. He was the bank," said Dixon. "He treated everyone at the bank as family members. Everyone right now I think is just pretty disappointed that we don't have him around anymore, like they lost a very, very important part of their family. He's going to be sorely, sorely missed."

Above all else, Usevich said Curran simply loved his hometown, the place where he touched so many lives.

"Joe loved his Norwood. Always seen with his beloved Betty Ann, he was Mr. Norwood and a loyal Mustang," he said.

"He wielded tremendous influence, right up until the end. I know he was dealing with some health issues as we all do when get older, but still you don't expect it," said Cooper.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, May 10 at 9 a.m. from the Gillooly Funeral Home, 126 Walpole St., followed by a Mass of Christian burial at 10 a.m. at St. Catherine of Siena Church, 547 Washington St. Burial will follow the Mass in Highland Cemetery. Relatives and friends are invited and may call on Thursday, May 9 from 3 to 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

This week, Norwood baseball faced two Bay State Conference (BSC) opponents and came out on top.

On Friday, Norwood beat fellow (BSC) opponent Framingham 8-6 in Norwood.

Like most of their games lately, they did it in dramatic fashion.

Junior starting pitcher Joe Rydzewski got into some trouble in the top of the third inning.

After walking the first batter, his first of four on the day, the runner advanced to second on a past ball.

After a sacrifice bunt, the runner scored on a fielder's choice from short, giving Framingham the early lead.

In the top of the fourth inning, Rydzewski walked the leadoff batter, once again reaching second on a past ball.

The Framingham runner later scored on a fielder's choice from second, giving Framingham the 2-0 lead.

Finally, the Norwood bats came alive in the bottom of the fourth.

Senior right fielder Anthony Perriello singled to begin the inning and senior shortstop Ken Michael reached on a dropped pop-up by Framingham's second baseman.

Senior catcher Mark Saulnier drove Perriello in on an R.B.I. single and junior first baseman John Galvin drove Michael in with an R.B.I. single of his own, tying the score in the process at two.

Senior Joe Erker, who split designated hitter duties with senior Shaun Callahan, singled to center with the infield play-

The Norwood Mustangs' softball team continued their momentum this week, going 2-1.

Last Wednesday, Norwood beat fellow Bay State Conference (BSC) opponent Milton 10-0, completing the slaughter rule win in a five-inning game in Norwood.

In the bottom of the first, senior first baseman Jessica Gorman singled with two outs.

Senior Kelly Duggan, who played in left field in Wednesday's game, drove Gorman in with an R.B.I. double. Duggan then advanced on two past balls to give Norwood their second run.

In the top of the second inning, senior starting pitcher Jillian Shepherd did what she does best: retire Milton's batters in order.

Once again, Norwood scored with two outs in the bottom of the second. Sophomore catcher Erin Garczynski singled in Norwood's third run of the game, giving Norwood the 3-0 lead.

Garczynski isn't just known for her bat, but her arm as well.

In the top of the third, after Shepherd walked her second batter of the inning, Garczynski picked off a runner who took too big of a lead to end the inning.

The bottom of the third was when Norwood really got going.

Gorman lead off the inning with a single and Duggan followed it up with a single of her own.

With runners on first and second, Shepherd wisely bunted the runners over to second and third.

Sophomore third baseman Kristen Flynn reached on a bobbled ground ball to short, scoring Gorman in the process.

With runners on the corners, Flynn was gunned down at second, but Duggan broke for home as soon as the catcher released her throw and

Playoffs still in sight despite loss

On Monday, the Norwood Boys Tennis team lost 0-5 to Bay State Conference (BSC) opponent Weymouth in Norwood.

Head coach John Churchill looked at his hardworking team through the chain link fence with pride, stopping to chat with parents of the players and giving his team added support whenever he got a chance.

"I'm pleased with the effort," Churchill said during the match. "We're facing a strong team. We're playing them well."

Norwood, now with a 5-6 overall record and 4-4 BSC record, lost three of their first four matches before winning four of their last five, culminating in a four-game win streak that started on Thursday, April 25 and ended on Wednesday May 1.

Three of the last four matches they've played have been close, including a 3-2 win at Dedham, a 3-2 win at BSC opponent Braintree last Monday, a 3-2 win at BSC opponent Natick last Wednesday and a 3-2 loss at BSC opponent Walpole on Friday.

"When scores get like [the 3-2 win at Dedham], it's tough to keep your focus, but they've really kept their focus," Churchill said.

The up and down season is a result of an uncertain roster and a tough schedule.

"We have to deal with what the makeup of our team is," Churchill said, explaining

Boys Lax falls in closing seconds to Framingham

Austin Hall

Facing fellow Bay State Conference (BSC) opponent Framingham in Norwood, the Norwood Boys Lacrosse team lost, 10-9, in the closing seconds.

Framingham jumped out to an early lead, scoring four unanswered goals in the first quarter before reaching a stalemate with Norwood in the second quarter.

Early in the third quarter, junior attackman Mike Roy scored Norwood's first goal, giving Norwood a chance.

After Framingham answered with another goal of their own, sophomore attackman Danny Farrell scored his first goal of the game.

Framingham was not phased in the least, scoring another two goals before Farrell scored his second goal of the game with just 1:05 to go in the third quarter.

Finally, Norwood came alive.

With 35 seconds to go in the quarter, senior attackman Emmett McNamara scored his first goal of the game, pulling Norwood within three goals of tying Framingham.

Just 19 seconds later, Roy scored his second goal, bringing Norwood within two.

In the early minutes of the fourth quarter, Norwood put themselves in position to pull off a come from behind victory.

Farrell scored the opening goal of the final quarter with 10:10 to go, his third goal of the game. Now, Norwood trailed by only one goal.

Senior middle Danny Moynihan tied the game at seven, forcing the crowd to erupt with applause.

Junior middle Tim Kent gave Norwood the lead soon after, but the celebration was short lived.

Framingham answered with a tying goal of their own just six seconds after Norwood got their first lead of the game.

After a tough five-minute defensive stretch in which neither team could score, McNamara scored his second goal of the game, giving Norwood the lead, 9-8.

With just 2:10 to go, things looked pretty good for Norwood. It wouldn't last.

With just 25 seconds left, Framingham scored, tying it at nine and shocking both the crowd and the Norwood players. Things only got worse.

With just eight seconds to go, Framingham scored the winning goal, finishing Norwood off.

A despondent head coach Anthony Roman tried to explain in his own words how the team played.

"[The] first quarter, first half was pretty terrible," Roman said.

Yet, he did see some positive signs in the second half.

"We woke up in the second half," but by then the deficit was too big to overcome, Roman said.

He also knows what it will take to pull off a victory, something the team desperately needs after falling to 3-11 overall and 3-5 in the BSC.

"We just gotta be smarter," Roman said. "If we clean up the first quarter, the first half, we'll be a lot better off, Roman said.

that he didn't know that they wouldn't have a key player until the beginning of the season.

Yet, the team is still in a good position to make a run at the playoffs.

"We're set on trying to make the playoffs," Churchill said. "We're playing like we're" going to be in the playoffs, Churchill said.

Still, the tough matches are hard to ignore, especially when they are close, like the 3-2 loss at Walpole.

"It's tough to dig down deep after tough matches," Churchill said.

Even so, with all the adversity that they have faced, the team has stayed afloat through discipline and practice, an attitude that has improved the team in waves each year.

"These guys have made a lot of progress learning doubles [and] serving," Churchill said. "We've seen little improvements. It's building up into this year."

The team wouldn't be fighting for a playoff spot if it weren't for their standouts.

Senior Walter Aspinwall, Churchill's #1 singles player, has been stupendous, getting a straight-set win against Walpole last Friday and winning 7-5 in the third set after being down 5-2 against Natick last Wednesday, leading Churchill to proclaim it "a breakthrough match."

Against Weymouth, Aspinwall lost 1-6, 2-6, but played against what Churchill calls "a skilled freshman, who did not leave Walter any openings."

Their #2 single, senior Michael Breen, has been fantastic as well.

"[He's] giving us a lot of good efforts [out] there," Churchill said. "He's a good number two."

Against Weymouth, Breen lost 4-6, 4-6, but Churchill was happy with the performance.

"Breen had a good battle. Both sets were close, but he had a tough challenge with another talented freshmen," Churchill said.

Junior Fjorelo Gjata, their #3 singles player, also showed positive improvement in the match with a 3-6 in the first set, a 7-5 in the second set and 1-6 in the third set.

"Gjata played well for himself, but he is still getting used to varsity competition. [He] has shown progress in his mental game with each successive match," Churchill said.

Their #1 doubles team is a great addition as well and shows a lot of promise.

The doubles team, which is made up of senior Corey Haigh and sophomore Nathan Jones, have been aided by Jones's ability to improve with each match.

"It made sense to [move Jones] to doubles," Churchill said, "He's really coming along."

In the match, they won the first set, 6-3, but lost the second set 2-6 and third 3-6.

In #2 doubles, senior Jason Najm and Tom Burke won their first set, 6-2, lost the second set, 4-6 and lost a super tiebreaker 6-10 in lieu of a third set, since the team match was already decided.

Overall, Churchill has been very pleased scored Norwood's fifth run.

Senior designated player Sydney Cherella singled and scored after a dropped ball in left field.

From there, freshman second baseman Kristina Michael singled in her twin sister, freshman right fielder Kasey Michael, giving Norwood the 7-0 advantage.

Even when Milton threatened, Shepherd shut them down, striking out a batter with the bases loaded to end the top of the fourth inning.

In the bottom of the fourth inning, Duggan tripled with one out, scoring Gorman.

Shepherd singled right away, scoring Duggan for the second time and giving Norwood the nine-run advantage.

It wasn't enough for Norwood, not yet. They wanted the slaughter rule to go into effect.

If they scored one more run, it would give them a 10-0 lead and a chance to finish the game early in the top of the fifth inning.

Sophomore Kara Shea pinch-ran for Shepherd and later scored the tenth run after Milton's shortstop mishandled another ground ball, allowing Kasey Michael to reach first and keep the inning alive.

In the top of the fifth, Shea replaced Flynn at third and immediately made an impact, fielding a ground ball and throwing out the runner at first.

Shepherd, who struck out four and walked only three in the shortened, five-inning game, fielded the final out and threw to first to end the game.

Head coach Carol Savino had plenty to say about her team after the victory.

Once again, Savino was happy with Shepherd's dominant performance.

"She's getting better and better," Savino said.

She focused mostly on the youth of the team and how bright the future looks.

The freshman Michael twins and shortstop Alyssa Chamberlain, who played short in place of injured senior Makenna Lane, filled in nicely.

"They're getting experience," Savino said. "They did great."

Without Lane, who injured her back in practice, they lost a part of what makes the team so special.

"You're missing that bat, more than anything, you're missing that leadership," Savino said.

But, there is some good news.

Sophomore starting pitcher Kathy O'Donnell, who has been injured all year, will come back on Wednesday.

Yet even without their regular leaders, the team leads itself by practicing every chance they get.

On Patriots' Day, Savino gave them the option of taking the day off. They declined.

"When you have kids telling you that they want to practice, that's exactly what you want," Savino said.

Unfortunately, their momentum didn't carry over into the next game. Traveling to BSC opponent Framingham, they got shut out 7-0.

Things got much better on Monday.

In Norwood facing BSC opponent Dedham, they won 11-1.

Now at 10-3 overall and 9-3 against BSC opponents, the Norwood girls keep motoring along.

With their willingness to practice, this should be the case for the rest of the year.

Senior starting pitcher Jillian Shepherd struck out four and walked three against Milton in a shortened, five-inning victory.

ing in, scoring Galvin and Saulnier and giving Norwood the 4-2 lead.

By the top of the fifth, Rydzewski got into a groove, retiring Framingham's batters in order by striking out the last two of the inning.

In the top of the sixth, Framingham came back.

With one out and the bases loaded, Michael made a low throw to first after trying to get the second out of a possible double play, bouncing the ball by the first baseman and allowing two runs to come in.

After another Rydzewski walk, Framingham singled to left and scored their fifth run, giving them the one-run lead heading into the bottom of the sixth.

In the top of the seventh, Rydzewski struck out his sixth and final batter of the game before walking the next batter.

Senior Tyler Gover came in and walked his first two batters in relief, loading the bases.

With two outs, Gover walked in another Framingham run, his third walk of the four he would surrender in the outing.

In the bottom of the seventh, they got the run right back.

Perriello singled with one out and after Michael doubled, Galvin drove Perriello in on an infield single by beating the throw to first.

By the bottom of the eighth, Norwood scored when it mattered most.

With one out and runners on second and third, senior third baseman Rourke Flynn hit a two-R.B.I triple, giving Norwood the 7-6 lead.

Flynn then scored on a fielder's choice, giving Norwood the 8-6 lead.

In the top of the ninth, left-handed reliever Danny Flahive, a senior, came in to close out the game.

He promptly struck out a batter with one out and after allowing a single, forced Framingham to ground out to second to end the game, giving Norwood the 8-6 victory.

After the game, head coach Kevin Igoe talked about their one bad inning problem.

"We just can't put a full game together," Igoe said. "[We're] still chasing that perfect game."

He also explained what will make Rydzewski a stellar pitcher.

"He tries to do it himself," Igoe said. "[If] he pitch[es] to contact, he'll be that much better off."

Yet, as what always happens in a win, their were standouts to make special mention of.

Igoe spoke of Gover and how he's been such a big part of the team on the mound, in center field and at the plate.

"We're not worried about him," Igoe said. "He's an all around amazing athlete. He's been our catalyst all year."

Still, that one bad inning needs to stop rearing its ugly head.

"We know we won but we feel like we lost," Igoe said. "We have to clean it up and clean it up fast."

In their next game, Norwood did just that, traveling to BSC opponent Dedham and shutting them down, 4-0.

Senior starting pitcher John Nardelli was fantastic, striking out eight and walking only three.

"He pitched great," Igoe said. "He's got a cannon for an arm."

Now at 9-3 overall and 9-2 against BSC opponents, everything is starting to click.

"We're getting good pitching and now we're getting [good] defense," Igoe said. "We're getting all facets of the game together."

Parenting strategies that enhance the reading experience will also be included. Please register by contacting Christine Tomasello at ctomasello@norwood.k12.ma.us or (781) 440-5983 before May 10.

NORFOLK COUNTY RAIL BUFF GROUP MEETING

On May 29, at 7:00 p.m. Located at Norwood's Morrill Memorial Library Simoni Room. "Salute to the Senator", a stunningly interesting video documentary on a day's work in the life of a New Haven Railroad locomotive engineer who became a Rhode Island State Senator, is the featured presentation. During the 1960s, Engineer Joseph Degraide piloted the New Haven Railroad's crack "Senator" Boston to Washington express. When he was not running the famous fast train from Boston to New Haven and back, Degraide served as a Rhode Island State Senator. The program is based on the video and film collection of Rev. Stephen Washburn, a member of the Norfolk County railfan group, who narrates the program which was produced in collaboration with Paul Beck, Emerson College TV, Radio & Film staff member.

Salute to the Senator" is a captivating video essay of the rail veteran's workaday high speed run at the throttle, as viewed from the busy cab of modern diesel locomotives pulling "The Senator" Limited, and the life of a different "Senator" portraying Joe Degraide as an active lawmaker in the Rhode Island state capitol. Video clips from the touching retirement ceremony of the long-time railroader, recorded by Providence television station WJAR-TV, help close a memorable chapter in the history of the New Haven Railroad and one of the men who made it run so well.

The meeting is free and open to the public. Details contact Ed Sweeney, NCRRC program organizer, 781-762-5587.

an old picture he still keeps of the day he was sworn into office, with Curran there by his side in the photo.

“Everybody loved Joe,” said Carroll. “He was an incredible man. We all miss him very much.”

Selectman Allan Howard called Curran a “great friend,” and offered his “sincerest condolences” to his wife and family.

“I can’t say how much I will truly miss Joe. I am just broken that this man has passed away,” he said.

While Curran’s last year as a selectman was in 1993, he “never really left,” Selectman Mike Lyons said. Curran never lost his passion for the town and was a fixture at Norwood sporting events, he said.

“I’ve never really seen anyone with such love and care for a community. I’m going to miss his wisdom and guidance,” said Lyons.

“The main thing about Joe Curran was the kindness he had for everyone,” Selectman Helen Abdallah Donohue added. “Joe Curran is a part of the history here in Norwood.”
